

Supplementary File
A Contextual Thematic Analysis of the Accessory Nerve in Scottish Historical Medical Collections of the Royal Colleges of Edinburgh and Glasgow

Supplementary Materials and Method

Supplementary Table 1: Inclusion and exclusion criteria

Inclusion Criteria
Resources that:
	Were produced from 1700 to 1899
	Focused on the region of the head and neck
	Focused on the anatomy of the nervous system
	Focused on the cranial nerves
	Were housed in the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh and the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow in Scotland
Books
Journal articles
Engravings/Plates
Resources with content on the accessory nerve in humans
Exclusion Criteria
Resources that:
	Had no content depicting the accessory nerve
	Were produced before 1700 or after 1899
	Did not focus on the head and neck, nervous system or the cranial nerves
Pathology specimens
Medical and surgical Instruments
Paintings
Museum artifacts
Non-English texts
Resources with content on the accessory nerve in animals

List of search terms: cranial nerve(s); accessory nerve; eleventh cranial nerve; head and neck anatomy; nervous system anatomy; head anatomy; neck anatomy; william macewen; charles bell; alexander monro.