

University
of Glasgow | School of Education

Enhanced Political Awareness

Authentic engagement in a research/practice partnership to strengthen leadership for critically conscious school communities

15 July 2023

Presenting Authors

Ms Alison Mitchell
Professor Margery McMahon
@UofGHeadship @UofGEducation

Mrs Jane Arthur
Ms Olivia Drennan
@EdISGlasgow @GCCLeadLearn

University of Glasgow | School of Education

School of Education

Enhanced Political Awareness (EPA)
How critically conscious are your school communities?

INSPIRING
PEOPLE

BELMAS 2023

British Educational Leadership, Management and Administration Society

University of Glasgow | School of Education

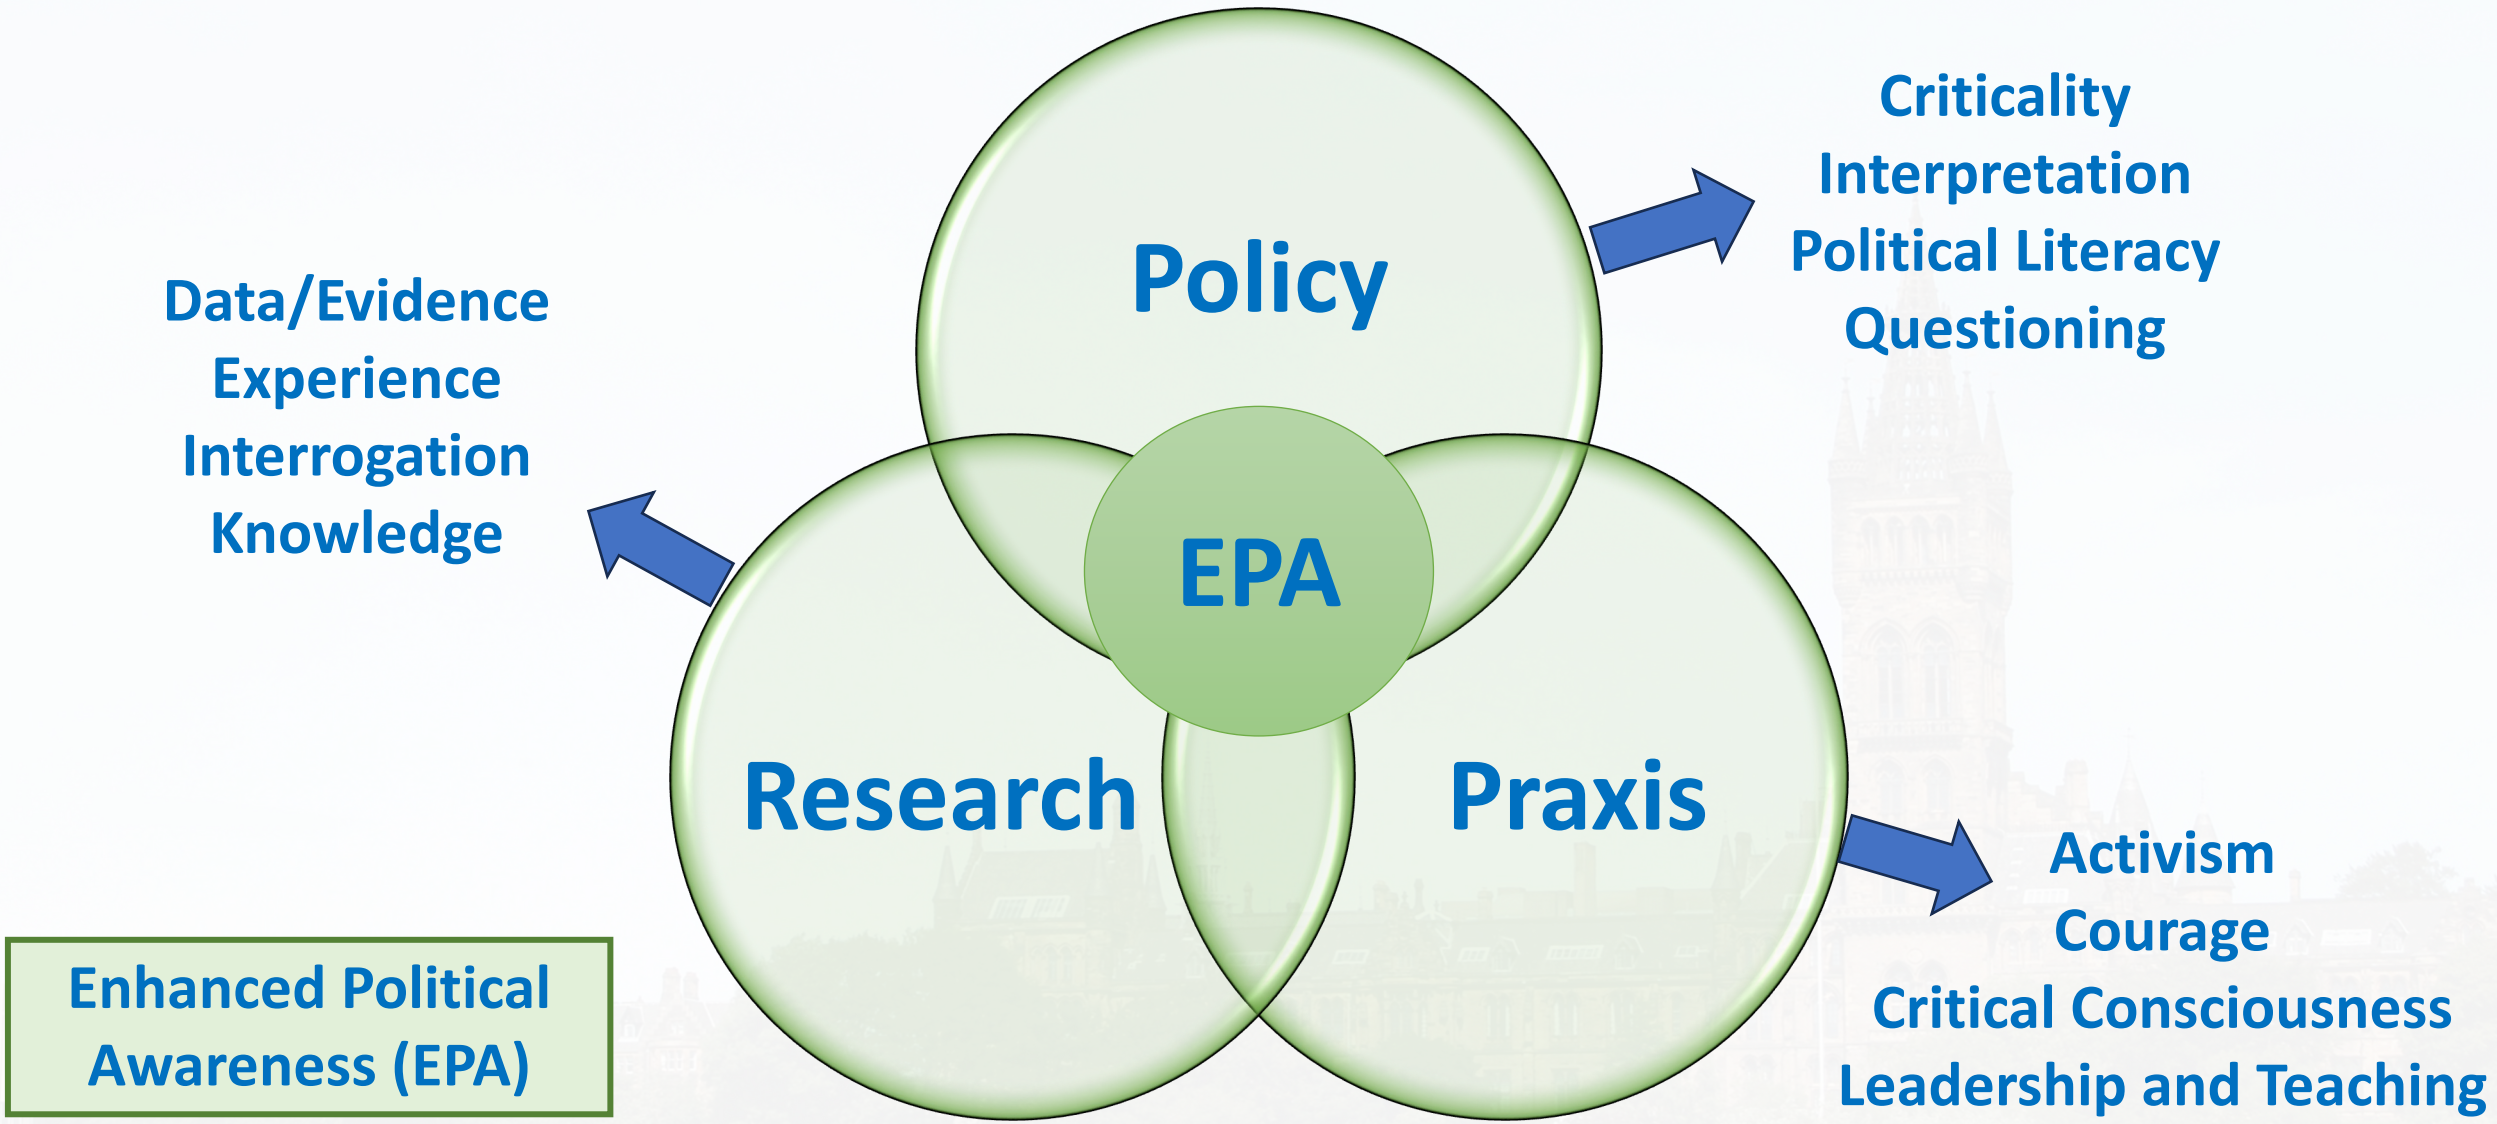

Glasgow High Street St Mungo's Mural (Smug, 2016)

Education is always a political act, which can be used both to maintain the status quo and to promote social change.

Paulo Freire

INSPIRING PEOPLE

BELMAS 2023

British Educational Leadership, Management and Administration Society

University of Glasgow | School of Education

OUR PURPOSE

Sustainable development goal 4:

Ensure inclusive and quality education for all and promote lifelong learning.

CHALLENGES

We have identified five grand challenges that offer the most promise in achieving our vision of A world class learning city founded on nurture principles, ensuring every learner is able to embrace their potential.

OUR VISION

A world class learning city founded on nurture principles.

OUR VALUES

COMPASSION, AMBITION, TRUST, EQUITY

Education Improvement Service

BELMAS2023

British Educational Leadership, Management and Administration Society

University of Glasgow | School of Education

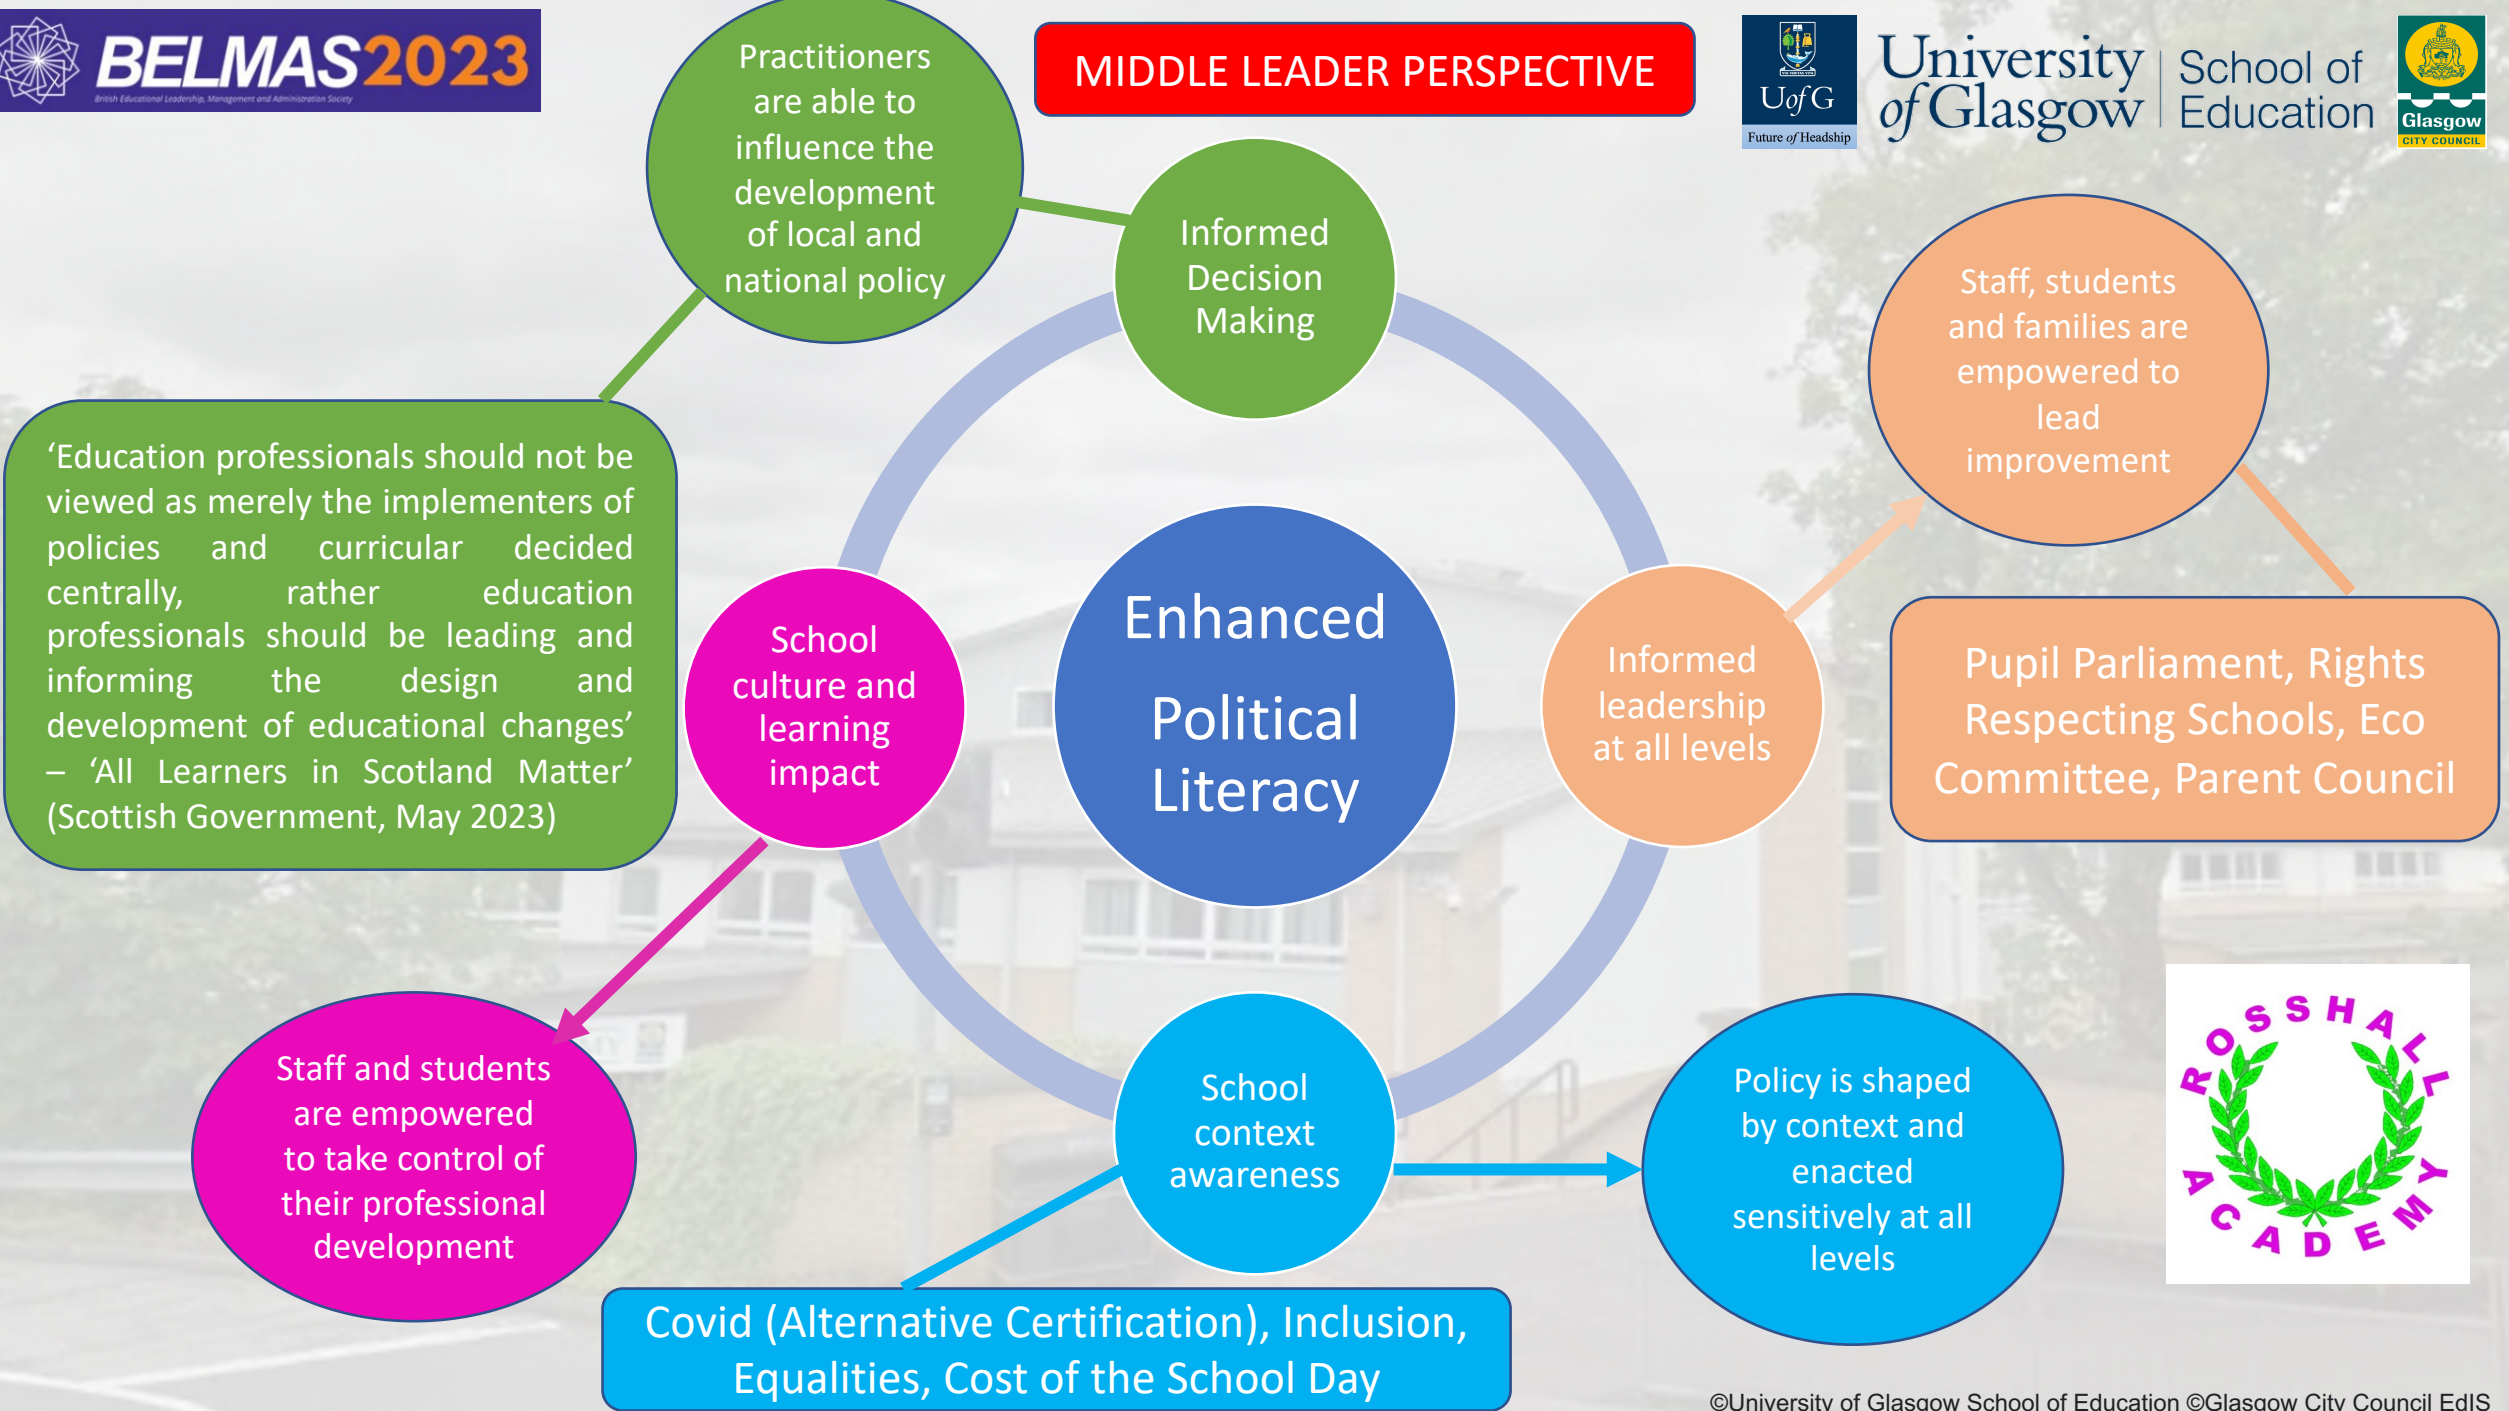

- ❑ Why? What? How? When?
- ❑ Programme
- ❑ Strategic role and remit
- ❑ Culturally Responsive Curriculum
- ❑ GTCS Professional Standards
- ❑ Impact

‘Always looking inward, outward and forward.’

BELMAS2023

British Educational Leadership, Management and Administration Society

University of Glasgow | School of Education

To what extent does leadership across your system(s) enhance stakeholders' capacity to recognise, understand and critique social injustices, to prepare our communities for living and leading in politically and socially troubling times.

INSPIRING
PEOPLE

Education
Improvement
Service

Picture Source: World Bank, 2023

University of Glasgow | School of Education

Contributors

University of Glasgow, School of Education (Scotland, UK)

Margery.McMahon@glasgow.ac.uk

Alison.Mitchell@glasgow.ac.uk

@UofGEducation

@Margery25Camino

@AliJMitchHT

Glasgow City Council, Education Improvement Service

Jane.Arthur@Glasgow.gov.uk

ODrennan@rosshallacademy.glasgow.sch.uk

@EdISGlasgow

@Jane_Arthur

@OliviaDrennanEd

Thank you to the BELMAS Community
and to our hosts in Belfast

INSPIRING
PEOPLE

References

Arshad, R. (2022). A sense of fairness, intuition and common sense is not enough (A GTCS Provocation) [online] Available at: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=p1shX2oZHys>

Forde, C. (2011). Approaches to Professional Learning: Coaching, Mentoring and Building Collaboration. In C. Forde & J. O'Brien (Eds.), Coaching and Mentoring: Developing Teachers and Leaders (pp. 17–31). Edinburgh: Dunedin Academic Press.

GTCS. (2021). GTC Professional Standards for Teachers. [online] Available at: <https://www.gtcs.org.uk/professional-standards/professional-standards-for-teachers/>

Styslinger, M. E., Stowe, J., Walker, N., & Hyatt Hostetler, K. (2019). Becoming teachers for social justice: Raising critical consciousness. The Clearing House: A Journal of Educational Strategies, Issues and Ideas, 92(1-2), 9-14.