Pain to Scale

They don't believe you
It's like being electrocuted
But words are convoluted disputed and unsuited
To describe the feeling as the pain convulses
As each sharp attack pulses

Tramadol

Moved the pain but did not absolve
Changed sensations did not resolve

Amitriptyline

Cut you off from this scene
Felt far away and close at hand
"It's always hard being 15"

Fentanyl

This one not even a pill
Stuck down on the skin
Morphine the outside yet not denting pain within

Gabbapentin

The weirdest of all
You felt like a moonbeam
Who care if it hurts or they believe you
Your shoes are blue so very blue
